Hurt Somebody (backing vocals - Chris Stapleton)

Dierks Bentley

Well, you ain't that old but you ain't that young
You've lived a life but you ain't quite done
All eyes on you everywhere you go
It's all good till you get too closeGirl, you're gonna hurt somebody
Make somebody bleed
Girl, you're gonna hurt somebody
God, I hope it's meThere's an innocence there this time of night
Is it in your words, is it in your eyes?
And your red lipstick like a smoking gun
It could be aimed at anyoneGirl, you're gonna hurt somebody
Make somebody bleed
Girl, you're gonna hurt somebody
And God, I hope it's meThere's a simple truth to the morning sun
Things don't change, they just light up
With a frontier mind and a restless heart
Girl, you can't change the way you areYeah, you're gonna hurt somebody
Make somebody bleed
Girl, you're gonna hurt somebody
God, I hope it's meYeah, you're gonna hurt somebody
Make somebody bleed
Yeah, you're gonna hurt somebody
And God, I hope it's me
