In My Head

Dub Fx

Do you hear music?
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
I'm ageing and changing on the outside
But staying the same on the inside I find
We never grow old unless you use your eyes
Yes I'm ageing and changing on the outside
But staying the same on the inside I find
We never grow old unless you use your eyes
So see my heaven raining down inside of me
Time will always dictate evolution
So I let it wash all over me
Like waterfalls of memories eternally
See my heaven raining down inside of me
Time will always dictate evolution
So I let it wash all over me
Like waterfalls of memories eternally
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
I'm melting away my existence is gone
The life that I once had means nothing at all
I am lost in time, slow down
I'm melting away my existence is gone
The life that I once had means nothing at all
I am lost in time, slow down
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
Do you hear music, its in my head, its in my head
