Dear Jane

The Madden Brothers

I met you down on the lower east side
And so things started when I just asked for your name
You said, "It's Jane"
Now we're three months, seven days into this thing
And I can't help thinking that it's all been in vain
Yeah, all in vainNow, dear Jane, yeah I'm writing you to say we're no good together
Oh Jane, yeah I'm going to find a way to float away like a feather
I don't want to hurt you but I got to make a change
Oh, all I can say is that I hope you feel the same
Dear, JaneOh, we can't make it from the Bowery to Prince
Without bumping into some other guy who says he's your friend
Just another friend, huh?
Want to go out when I want to stay in
You want me to love you but I just can't pretend
Just can't do it no moreNow, dear Jane, yeah I'm writing you to say we're no good together
Oh Jane, yeah I'm going to find a way to float away like a feather
I don't want to hurt you but I got to make a change
Oh, all I can say is that I hope you feel the same
Dear, JaneI never thought I would believe
It's such a pretty thing, calm will set you straight
Here's a day I never thought I'd see
Such a pretty one, make me wanna fly like you didNow, dear Jane, yeah I'm writing you to say we're no good together
Oh Jane, yeah I'm going to find a way to float away like a feather
I don't want to hurt you but I got to make a change
Oh, all I can say is that I hope you feel the same
Dear, JaneOh, Jane
You know it's easy to write that you want it to end
But the hard part comes when you got to hit send
No I never could send it now, I never did send it
It's easy to write that you want it to end
But the hard part comes when you got to hit send
No I never could send it now, why can't I just send it?
