Apollo 13

The Tears

Estuary girl you're not the one
You don't belong to the world that I'm from
Your lazy words blow like confetti in the wind, in the wind
Estuary girl you're not part of my scene
Your feet don't belong on my upholstery
And sometimes I sink when you call me on the phone
On the phoneBut if you follow me, I will follow you to the unknown
Like Apollo, like Apollo we'll fly to the moon
Yes if you follow me, I will follow you to the unknown
Like Apollo, like Apollo 13 we'll explodeSad as a song, a child of the streets,
Your skin don't belong on my designer sheets
In eyeliner you wrote me a note that I'll never read at all
Estuary girlBut if you follow me
I will follow you to the unknown
Like Apollo, like Apollo we'll fly to the moon
Yes if you follow me I will follow you to the unknown
Like Apollo, like Apollo 13 we'll explode
