

Sometimes

Duncan Sheik

here's a list of things gone wrong please don't worry it won't take too long you read it somewhere but you're on the wrong track you're calling someone but they don't call back you trip you fall and everyone stares you write a song and nobody cares nobody's there
it doesn't seem fair sometimes sometimes the dust the haze
sometimes sometimes
a brighter face
time it disappears into the blue here's a list of things gone right rest assured it won't take all night you went the wrong way but you saw such sights you fell you fell to greater heights X 3 you found her love letters in the mail every song you write is a fairy tale sometimes you sail through the wind and the gales sometimes sometimes
the dust the haze
time it disappear into the blue
darker days
sometimes sometimes
the thanks the praise
time it disappears into the blue
you turn away
sometimes sometimes
I catch your gaze
time it disappears for me for you
