Foolish Love

Monophonics

I feel your touch, but you've been gone some time
I see your face, but that's only in my mind
So I do what I can, just to get you back Cause just can't shake the ??? so get my life on trackOh my my, I miss you so much and the way you held me tight
Oh why why, is it so tough?
Cause I can't seem to break away from your foolish loveOh you got me where you want me
Oh I can't stop this feeling
I'm just a fool for you womanThese games got me dizzy
Girl I won't ???
I can't take anymore of this love merry-go-round
I don't know what else to do, just to get you back Cause you don't love me no more and that's a factOh my my, I miss you so much
And the way you held me tight
Oh why why, is it so tough?
Cause I can't seem to break away from your foolish loveOh you got me where you want me
Oh I can't stop this feeling
Oh I'm just a fool for you baby
And you got me where you want me
No I can't stop this feeling
I'm just a fool for you woman
No I can't help my heart, no noSee how I'm doing with you and I'm groovin' on I've had enough of heartbreak for far too long but no man would ???
Even in fifty years it's quite the choice I've madeOh my my, I miss you so much
And the way you held me tight
Oh why why, is it so tough?
Cause I can't seem to break away from your foolish loveOh you got me where you want me
Oh I can't stop this feeling
I'm a fool for you baby
Yeah you got me where you want me
No I can't stop this feeling I got
I'm a fool for you honey baby
Ain't nothing gon' help my heart, no no
