Forest For The Trees

Danko Jones

All you wanna be is insane
Wishing you were more than just plain
And when you try you try too hard it comes off fakeMany times I wanted to say
Plastic people like you will break
And soon enough it caught up and you went awayAnd if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amends
And if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amendsYou like it when you make people wait
It's the only time you're calling the plays
Controlling nothing makes you execrateEverybody knows you're in pain
We all know it stems from the shame
Because your actions called for a drastic fall from graceAnd if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amends
And if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amendsYou suck up life like you're a needle
Sticking in a vein for life
Keep up appearances when needed
You're used to changing overnightI always wondered if you saw
What the rest of us could see
Every day's a final straw
Can't see the forest for the treesCan't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the treesCan't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the treesCan't see the forest for the trees
Can't see the forest for the trees
The trees, the trees, the trees, the treesAnd if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amends
And if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amendsAnd if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amends
And if I never see you again
It'll be too soon to make amends
