

Leave Your Windows Open

One Day

They say we've moved too fast too soon
But your worries get washed away when lightning fills the room
Palpable sparks
Vision in dark
But when the sun pierces through you
It's making its mark
So don't get burnt
Any fire I'mma quell it
Because I've learnt
I can be your umbrella
Your friends might care
I'll chill at the door
Just let me be there
And let it pour
No one can find out
I'm cool to keep it quiet for now
Just what we are about
I know it's gotta be raining for me to be around
And I hope that it pours down
I'll sit by window from dusk til' dawn
And I'mma be around the first sign of a storm

Oh it's raining outside
But baby leave your windows open
There's no need to hide
Cos they won't ever find out
If the water rushes in
And washes us clean

Whatever we're doing or we about to do we gotta quit it
Got it
What if I caught your eye
Saw everything you stored inside
No reason to be mortified
I change seasons all the time
It's alright I promise
Goddess
You got us into this here
Straight and narrow before the arrow got us but

Honestly
Reciprocate my honesty
Stipulate what you want from me
Probably never be together
But you could make it better if you put it in a song for me
I think it's on for me
Love fools put bets on for me
See constantly
The self pity
I need to move cities
You need to move on from me
Allow me to be straight here
I never loved the rain like I had straight hair
Eight years
I've been with the man
I've been up the wall
What you crying for?
I've been with the plan
In a strangle hinterland
Twisted man
