Faith In You

Randy Travis

I don't have faith in technology
Even though we created it
All this stuff just breaks down anyway
And you can never get it fixed
But I do have faith in youI don't have faith in politics
But I do believe in the will of the people
I don't know much about big time religion
But I believe in the cross on the steeple
And I do have faith in youAnd after all this time the lie becomes the truth
We traded in our innocence and sacrificed our youth
But you give me your love, the one thing I can't lose
You believe in me and I still have faith in youThe more I search for my significance
Seems the more I disappear and I wonder
Have I made a difference in any body's life
Since I've been hereI can hear your laughter
It's the sweetest sound I've ever known
I don't know how love happens
But I know I'm not alone and I do have faith in youAnd after all this time sometimes I see the truth
And I'm touched by your innocence and now I'm not confused
You give my your love, the one thing I can't lose
You believe in me and I still have faith in
I do have faith in you
