

Being Myself

Martina McBride

Sometimes I'm an ordinary girl, wrapped in my ordinary world
I just wanna listen to the rain, and stay in bed all day
Other times I'm extroverted, speak my mind and I don't worry who,
Might disagree or what anyone might say I don't listen to the critics
Believin' all their cynics
I don't need that kind of advice
'Cause I'm doing alright [Chorus]
Just being myself
That's all that I can be
Happy being me
Don't really wanna be nobody else
I know who I am
And the one thing I do, well
Is just being myself, yeah yeah I can be the drama queen, where my emotions on my sleeve
Sometimes, I know, I'm a little hard to handle
Other days I rather stay at home and have the leave me alone
I just need some space, just a little space I don't listen to the critics
Believin' all their cynics
No I don't have the time
'Cause I'm doin' alright [Chorus] Don't really wanna be nobody else
I know who I am and the one thing I do well,
Is just being myself
