His mind's confused and he just can't find his way, yeah
He knows he just can't fake it, how will he ever make it
His life before him to unfoldTonite's the night, tonite's the night
Tonite's the night he'll go out and find a way
Tonite, tonite's the night
Tonite, toniteLivin' his own life, makin' his own plans
Followin' his dreams, bein' his own man
Livin' his way, livin' his way
Livin' his way, livin' his way
Livin' his own way, own way, own wayHis life before him, shadows disappear
Usually cloudy, is morning, thoughts are clear, yeah
He knows he'd never take it, how could he ever fake it
All of his worries disappearTonite's the night, tonite's the night
Tonite's the night he'll go out and find a way
Tonite, tonite, tonite, tonite, tonite
