Anxious thoughts, filter through the haze

His mind's confused and he just can't find his way, yeah

He knows he just can't fake it, how will he ever make it

His life before him to unfoldTonite's the night, tonite's the night

Tonite's the night he'll go out and find a way

Tonite, tonite's the night

Tonite, toniteLivin' his own life, makin' his own plans

Followin' his dreams, bein' his own man

Livin' his way, livin' his way

Livin' his way, livin' his way

Livin' his own way, own way, own wayHis life before him, shadows disappear

Usually cloudy, is morning, thoughts are clear, yeah

He knows he'd never take it, how could he ever fake it

All of his worries disappearTonite's the night, tonite's the night

Tonite, tonite, tonite, tonite, tonite
