

Afraid of Nothing

Sharon Van Etten

you told me the day
that you show me your face we'd be in trouble for a long time i can't wait til we're afraid
of nothing
i can't wait
til we hide
from nothing
nothing
and you decide
you throw me a lame "wait shit out"
you're a little late.
i need you
to be afraid of nothing. turning my way you show me your face we've known each other for a long time. I need you to be afraid of nothing
