Sideways Attack

Priestess

You are strong and you might assume
That your skills can overtake me
Ample time you waste, draw your sword
Say goodbye, your life is over(I'm a demon)
I walked the road through the river of fire
The truth I believed in betrayed
(I'm a demon)
My revenge, I long for the dayStrangers pass by me in the street
All they hope is they avoid me
No remorse and I've no regrets
Let them fall all around me(I'm a demon)
I walked the road through the river of fire
The truth I believed in betrayed
(I'm a demon)
My revenge, I long for the dayCarry yourself on the river
Blood was shed in the north
Scattered bodies like windfallThis disgrace is my cross to bear
It's the force that motivates me
Stand and fight me or step aside
You will die if you attack me(I'm a demon)
I walked the road through the river of fire
The truth I believed in betrayed
(I'm a demon)
My revenge, I long for the day(I'm a demon)
I walked the road through the river of fire
The truth I believed in betrayed
(I'm a demon)
My revenge, I long for the day
