Let Me In

Laura Branigan

Driving through the city, as I look out through the window
Wonderin' what it's like to be sleepin' on the outside
Watch me take a picture of the place that I grew up in Sorry mister, thought you look like someone I remember
Someone I rememberLook at him still walking, like he knows somebody's watchin'
If I try to talk to him I wonder if he'll know me
C'mon say "Hey baby" won't you take a ride in my car
Maybe you can show me how we lost what we believe inJust let me stay here
I'm running from I don't know
Just let me stay here the night
The night, the night, the night, the night, the night, the nightI won't hurt you, don't stop me
Just let me stay a while
Just let me stay here for life
For life, for life, for life, for life, for life, for lifeI know it's been a while and the years have been unfaithful
Is there nothing left of me that even looks familiar
Everything was easy when we thought we had the answer
Why you lookin' at me like I'm from another planetJust let me stay here
I'm running from I don't know
Just let me stay here the night
The night, the night, the night, the night, the night, the nightI won't hurt you, don't stop me
Just let me stay a while
Just let me stay here for life
For life, for life, for life, for life, for life, for lifeMy lo' say no
May you can let me in
My lo' say no
May you can let me in
