Gravity Eyelids

Porcupine Tree

Open your eyes now
Hear me out before I lose my mind
I've been waiting for hours
Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwindGive me a smile please
Count the calm and watch my breathing slow
Winding me up tease
Get inside my head and make it showAh, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come downTouching your oil skin
Slipping hands down past your waist to find
I've been waiting for hours
Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwindGo to the edge swim
Brown the eyes that sleep has rendered blindAh, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come downCome love so young with your gold arms so I wake her
Come love so young with yourAh, yeah, gravity eyelid, gravity eyelids comes down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelid, gravity eyelids comes down
