Eternal War

Bolt Thrower

Through man's existance, from the start of time
The fight for survival is our only crime
Those in power, rotten to the core
The ongoing battle of the eternal warWhat are you fighting for? Is it worth dying for?
You're held down by your chains, there's no-one but you to blameFighting, destroying, following blind Crushing, corrupting, enslaving mankindWhat's now left - you can't believe Oppression those in power, send to deceive
Slave to hatred, peace they deplore
Driven by despair, eternal warRebuild humanity to create a new society
For there's strength in unity which lies with you Can't you see
