Into the Funeral Domain

Centinex

[Music: Schulman & Wiklund]
[Lyrics: Schulman]Blinded by the fear
I'm trapped inside
The twilight and the dark illusions drain
It will guide me through the Northern storm
The wasteland of eternity will reignI... enter the funeral domain On a neverending chaos we lay
And I enter the funeral... domainYou feed me with the flames of burning hate Memories of loss and cold desire
With silent steps I face my destiny A land for the forsaken shadow to beA sorrowscape of my wonderland Astral gleams where we weep
Beyond the grief infinity awaits I carve me through the shades of mazeI memorize the dreaming ones
I gather dark coldness
As the light evolves
I hide far awayThe golden dawn is blazing bright
And I enter the mountain side
I grab my visions of eternity
And caress the strength of timeHear the lake and waves of a bleeding sleep Enthroned spirits of an evil damnation Whispers seals the wonds of my creation
Funeral of shredded souls domain
