Let Me Love You

Jeff Beck

(Over here)
Let me love you, baby
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy
Let me love you, baby
You're drivin' my poor heart crazyWhen I'm with you woman
My whole life seems so hazy
(Ah, don't you know that)Baby, when you walk
You shake just like a willow tree?
(Ah, yes, you do, darlin', every time I see ya, oh)
Baby, when you walk you know what?
You shake just like a willow tree(Know, I know, I know, I know)
Ooh ee, baby, you sure look so good to me
(Come on babe, yes, I know it, yeah)Baby, when you walk
You shake like a willow tree
(You oughta know that by now)
Baby, when you walk
You shake like a willow treeAnd ooh ee, baby, you sure look so good to me
(Easy with this one)Let me love you, baby
Love you, baby
Know, I know, I know
Let me love you, baby
Ah you let me love you, what you got
Let me love you, baby
Love you babyAny old way you choose it
I don't mind what time you call
(Ah, ah, yeah)
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy
Let me love you, baby
Love you, babyEarly in the mornin' time
Later in the evenin'
Let me love you, baby
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy
