Daydreamer

Patrick Watson

Daydreamer
Come talk to me now
Daydreamer, daydreamer
Come with me nowDon't, no you're sitting down
From your eyes
Is he sleeping anyhow?You're sitting down, sweet eyes
Still I'm sleeping anyhowBut daydreamer, oh daydreamer
Wake me now
From for the early sunlight
Pan my heart away
Day dreamer, oh day dreamerMy daydreamer
Won't you stay inside your house
'Cause I don't feel so lonely when you are around(Previous lines played backwards)
When you are aroundLay my head
Tie me out of my shoes
An' walk another place away from blues
When my head is heavy on my shoulders
Daydreamer gonna make it overMy daydreamer
Won't you stay inside your house
(previous lines backwards)
