You To Miss

Love And Theft

Some people try to hide, they try to move on
Can't stand the pain of you gone, baby, that's not me
I'd never try to ease the ache that I feel
The pain reminds me how real this love has come to be
And I'm not running scared
I will stay right where I gave you my word that I would be
I don't wanna hurt but I know I have to feel
I do it to be close to you, just to keep you real
I don't wanna cry, tears are part of life
They conquer the impossible and make you feel alive
And I'm so glad, my love, that I have you to miss, yeah
Some people try to fake but they don't feel this
Can't stand to face the realness, so they just run away, oh
But I want nothing more than you to hold me
So intimately know me, so I'll hurt along the way
And I'm not running scared
I will stay right where I gave you my word that I would be
I don't wanna hurt but I know I have to feel
I do it to be close to you, just to keep you real
I don't wanna cry, tears are part of life
They conquer the impossible and make you feel alive
And I'm so glad, my love, that I have you to miss
And it could never hurt so bad
That I would trade the love we have
And it could never cut so deep
That I would ever want to leave
I don't wanna hurt but I know I have to feel
I do it to be close to you, just to keep you real
I don't wanna cry, tears are part of life
They conquer the impossible and make you feel alive
And I'm so glad, my love, that I have you to miss
I'm so glad, my love that I have you to miss
I'm so glad, my love that I have you to miss
