

Don't Listen To the Wind

Lee Ann Womack

Love and lies he gave to me, now a million lovers couldn't set me free
He haunts me like the winds that blow with a memory that won't let go
Every face is his it seems; when I sleep he's in my dreams
All the thoughts my heart recalls drench me like the rain that falls
Don't listen to the wind
Don't listen to the rain
Can't you hear it call his name?
Don't say it's alright
Don't say it's gonna end
'Cause it'll be a long time 'fore I can love again
I know you wanna marry me but another man won't let me be
I'm a fool to trade a boy like you for a memory that won't be true
Love and lies he gave to me
Love and lies and a memory
His kiss so sweet, his angel eyes
It's just his love and other lies
Don't listen to the wind
Don't listen to the rain
Can't you hear it call his name?
Don't say it's alright
Don't say it's gonna end
'Cause it'll be a long time 'fore I can love again
(Hey)

Songwriters

JULIE ANNE MILLER Published by

Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>