Less

Fieldwork

I could give you more But you still wouldn't be happy I could give all you need But you still wouldn't be satisfied I could give to our poor Now what good would that be? You'd shake hands with Jesus And you still would not believe If you're, happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me The less you expect The more you'll be pleased The more you'll be pleased I could change your mind But what would you really be thinking? I'd show you a sign But you'd just pass it on by I could hold your hand But then we'd both be sinking The problem with the world Is everyone's not just like you If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me The less you expect The more you'll be pleased The more you'll be pleased If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very happy with me If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me If you're happy with nothing You'll be so very, happy with me So happy with nothing

So happy with me
