

No Guarantee

Michael McFarland

Im a little bit rusted, a little bit worn my frames just a little askew my manuals missing, my packagings torn but Ive got an offer for you if youre in the market Im here on the shelves in the back with the dust and debris theres still good years left in me, take me as is take me home with no guarantee Im a little untrusting, a little confused I thought it was right you should know that Ive been mistreated and Ive been misused but I wasnt built to let go and if you trade me in for a newer or sexier model I wouldnt blame you, Im nothing to show to your friends cause Im battered and bruised and Ive burnt all thats left of bravado but Ill do my best for you right until I meet my end
