Black Sand

Kalapana

[Violent J:]A black sand storm is approaching the metropolis
Sucking up sunlight it moves ontop of us
Beaches of black sand are littered with dead fish
Black sand deserts grow blood red cactus
Dust devils twist human bodies in half
Black sands down the hourglass that's our ass
This ain't the past that we live in we're not forgiven
It's death at the hands of the lands we've been given
[Blaze Ya Dead Homie:]A murdering sense feel the essence of the black sand
The sight alone cause trauma to a mortal man
Smoke starts rising and images appear
My legs stick and death replays over in the mirror
Grades of black sand the coming of your end
All you ever loved is now appearin wasteland
Lost forever and still you will descend
You're caught between light and dark within the black sand
[Chorus:]Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
[Jamie Madrox:]In the black sand I draw a diagram
A mythical imaginary wondrous land
Where pharaohs once inhabited and pyramids avast
Till the sky ate the sun turning everything to black
Night was eternal no more shadow of the Sphinx
Robbed the sun God and became extinct
May as well have died and turned to dust
Till the lightning hit the pyramids and everyone was crushed
[Monoxide Child:]Black sand mortal's end
Time for the Lotus to claim reign again

Cross legged I sit surrounded
Cops around it who block the worlds end
Shots fired at my direction
But I'm protected by the black sands within

Now watch me disappear in the air so thin
As I now being the end of humans
[Chorus:]Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
[Shaggy 2 Dope:]In your face black sand thrown
Then my knife rips you open from your balls to your dome
Lots roots planted deep down in this shit
When the pedals bloom that's when wigs get flipped
A world where the darkness consuming your soul
Sand leaking out your ass, nose, eyes and ear holes
Now you on your knees praying for your life
Too bad for your bitch ass you just another sacrifice
[Chorus:]Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Black sand blowing in the sky
Close your eyes
Follows whipping by, it surrounds you
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Close your eyes
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Close your eyes
Don't look or you'll turn to stone
Voices drive my conscience, and I fight. To keep them sane...
