Native Bride

The Triffids

You must have lost your nerve
You won't take a step outside
Going back to the stone age
You're going to take a native bride
Won't believe what happens to you...Some people say it's healthy
Some people say it's not
But you don't get satisfaction
From anything you've gotYou used to run to him
Then you wanted moreI fell in to a hole that was left where your heart was (A hole that was left where your heart was)
I fell in to a hole that was left where your heart was
(A hole that was left where your heart was)
There's not much substance left in
What you can't resist
There's not much use in feeding
Hungers that persistYou used to run to him
Then you wanted moreYou're going to follow the jungle trail
Going to hire a native guide
Going back to the stone age baby
Going to take a native bride
Wait and see what happens to youI fell in to a hole that was left where your heart was (A hole that was left where your heart was)
I fell in to a hole that was left where your heart was
(A hole that was left where your heart was)
I fell in to a hole that was left when you... kissed the native bride
When you... kissed the native bride
When you... kissed the native bride
