Ian Guerin

I think of you
Do you think of me too?
I wonder every night of my life

I want to hold your hand
Itâ€™s clear you donâ€™t want to hold mine
I know what Iâ€™ve done wrong, but who says youâ€™re right

And Baby
Think of all of the times youâ€™ve cried
Who was there with you by your side?
Who gave all that he had for you to smile?

And Baby
Think of all of the times we shared
In the house in the room in bed
Who gave all that he had for you to care?

Wasnâ€™t it I?

Baby be mine letâ€™s live today for once
Iâ€™ll turn pain to paradise
I can if you can
Baby be mine give love a different chance
Iâ€™ll turn pain to paradise
You Can If I Can

I look to you
Do you look at me too?
I dream it every night, as time goes by

I want to kiss your lips
Itâ€™s clear you donâ€™t want to kiss mine
I know that weâ€™re just friends, but I think that could change

And Baby
Think of all of the times youâ€™ve cried
Who was there with you by your side?
Who gave all that he had for you to smile?

And Baby
Think of all of the times we shared
In the house in the room in bed
Who gave all that he had for you to care?

Wasn't it I?

Baby be mine let's live today for once
I'll turn pain to paradise
I can if you can
Baby be mine give love a different chance
I'll turn pain to paradise
You Can If I Can

I know that we're just friends, but I think that could change
I want to kiss your lips

Baby, baby, baby
Baby, baby, baby
Baby, baby, baby

Baby be mine give love a different chance
I'll turn pain to paradise
I can if you can
