

all my friends

21 Savage

Yeah, yeah I lost all my friends countin' bands in the Bentley coupe

Diamonds on me doin' handstands, Rosé on my tooth

If she wanna dance, let her dance for the money, ooh

I don't need no friends if you really wanna know the truth

I lost all my friends countin' bands in the Bentley coupe

Diamonds on me doin' handstands, Rosé on my tooth

If she wanna dance, let her dance for the money, ooh

I don't need no friends if you really wanna know the truth

Lost a few friends chasin' hand money (On God)

Had the same friends when I was bummy (Straight up)

They should've went and did stand-up

'Cause when the money come, niggas act funny (True)

Crocodile wrist band, 21 Dundee

Yo' bitch skate so fast to the dick

That she'd even go and get a job at Sonic (On God)

Made it from the bottom, I'm a star (21)

Playin' with the stick like a guitar (21)

Why you got a 12 car garage? (Why?)

'Cause I bought six new cars (No lie)

I remember times was dark (I do)

Now I'm backstage with a bar (Big dog)

Couldn't pay the light bill, it was dark (Yeah)

Now I can shine in the dark (On God)

Lost a couple friends

I ain't even really mad though (On God)

I ain't even really mad though (21)

Hard to tell the real from fake

'Cause nowadays, they got masks on

Who gon' be around when the fame and the cash gone?

I lost all my friends countin' bands in a Lambo truck

VVSs on me, fightin' icy like a hockey puck

If she wanna dance, let her dance, watch her pick it up

I don't need no friends, what's a friend if it ain't no trust?

I lost all my friends countin' bands in the Bentley coupe

Diamonds on me doin' handstands, Rosé on my tooth

If she wanna dance, let her dance for the money, ooh

I don't need no friends if you really wanna know the truth I lost all my friends countin' bands and I copped a

Benz

Pulled up with no army, just the guap and I'm spendin' it

No, no, never lendin' it, that's all for me
I stay greedy with the dollar, givin' no 'pologies
All these mans with they fuckin' hands out
Tryna spare some
I don't never stress, no, I got plenty peso
I been all alone, on my own in my new mansion
Everybody says I went ghost, jump in my Phantom
Paparazzi always tryna press up on me
Ever since I blew up, I don't know nobody (Know nobody)
Yeah, I blew 80 bands only for you to leave
Hey, I know somewhere that my mama prayin' for me (For me) I lost all my friends countin' bands in the Bentley coupe (For me)
Diamonds on me doin' handstands, RosÃ© on my tooth (For me)
If she wanna dance, let her dance for the money, ooh
I don't need no friends if you really wanna know the truth
I lost all my friends countin' bands in the Bentley coupe
Diamonds on me doin' handstands, RosÃ© on my tooth
If she wanna dance, let her dance for the money, ooh
I don't need no friends if you really wanna know the truth I lost all my, I lost all my (Really wanna know the truth)
Hey
