Wrapping Paper

Cream

Wrapping paper in the gutter Moving slowly as the wind on the sea (Faces calling, waves moving)In your picture on a wall Of a house of old times (Can you hear me) Can you hear me (Can you hear me) Wandering sadlyIn the city, feeling pretty Down and out and making love to you on the shore (Ruined buildings, faces empty)In the picture as I gaze ahead and don't see (That they're calling) That they're calling (That they're calling) Wandering sadlyShattered windows Stairs to nowhere (Hear you calling) Hear you calling (Hear you calling) As I wander so sadlyWish I knew what you'd done to me Turned me on to things I never knew It's all broken, weeds are growingWish I was going home to The house by the shore (Where you loved me) Where you loved me (Where you loved me) Loved me so sadlySomeday I'll get back, somehow I'll do it I'll arrive there and you'll be there to meet me (Walk together, tread the weeds down)Kiss again in the picture on the wall (Where I loved you) In the old house (Where I loved you) Loved you so well
