Devastator

Groundbreaking

Take a chance and throw away your fears and all your casualties
Everything you see, everything I am, everything you think of me
Take it all upon yourself and try so hard to realize
Never knew what I'd become and how I fell to start a rise
And I was losing all my light
To everything that I denied
I didn't want to have to try
To make them approve of me
But now I'm forced to make the call
Keep lying to satisfy them all
Or tell the truth so that I can fall
And now I'm where I said I would never be(Chorus)
Feels like I am alive
After letting you fall
Now you pay the price
Tear your world apartDevastate your expectations let them down and light them up
Strike a match and catch it all on fire then we shut 'em up
All the while we fear ourselves, we really need to face our fears
Every time we fly away is two more times we make them hear
So sorry to rain on your parade
But I really have to catch this date
With the purest sounds and finest symphonies
Your little world is nothing more
Than one little game that made me bored
Of all the dreams you had dreamed for me
But it was nothing more(Chorus)Tear it apart
Tear your world apartEverything that you set for me
Was all apart of your perfect dream
And any time that I tried to see
You took it all away from me
But now I know what I have to do
Devastate the world that is you
Tear apart the life that you knew
Burn it down and bury it too
Take a chance and live your life
Better hurry almost out of time
Everything is gonna be just fine
Dedicate your life and devastate it
This could be it

Take what I get(Chorus)Tear it apart
Tear your world apartï»¿
