

What You Wish for

Guster

Woke up today
To everything gray
And all that I saw
Just kept going on and on Sweep all the pieces under the bed
Close all the curtains and cover my head
And what you wish for
Won't come true
You aren't surprised love
Are you? If this serenade
(Repeat after me just a little bit closer)
Is not what you want
(And do what I say caught up in a lie)
It just how it is
(It won't change a thing got a little bit colder)
It keeps going on and on Come out come out wherever you are
Would you do it all over
Right from the start?
And what you wish for
Won't come true
You aren't surprised love
Are you? And what you wish for
Won't come true
You aren't surprised love
Are you?
Once had this dream
Crashed down in Oz
Not black and white
But where the colors are I never dreamed that I could let it go
And I will get
What I deserve
Sweep all the secrets
under the bed
Open the curtains
forget what I said And what you wish for Could come true
You act surprised, love

Are you?
