

Faces In the Window

Dio

Two faces on fire, no traces
Something has swallowed the night
You know that nothing can make it all right Yeah, like candy emotion
Too much and sugar can turn to sand
You scream but nobody touches your hand Are we just shouting at the pain
Or do we see just what we are
We're naked in the rain, naked in the rain Two children, guns loaded
Take aim and blow all the dreams away
Too late for anything better to say Hey, are we just crazy with the pain
Or do we see just what we are?
We're naked in the rain, naked in the rain
Naked in the rain, yeah Two faces no fire
No traces, fever has turned to snow
Hearts break to show you the way as you go, oh Are we just running from the pain
Or do we see just what we are?
We're naked in the rain, naked in the rain
Naked in the rain, naked in the rain Two children on fire, emotion burns higher
Guns loaded blow all the dreams away
Naked in the rain, naked in the rain
Frightened by the pain, naked in the rain
