The Toast

Adam Ezra Group

Raise up your glasses!
Let us drink to the wind at our backs
May it always blow steady wherever you roam
May it turn when youâ€™re ready to carry you home
May it keep you ahead of the rain

Raise up your glasses!
Let us drink to the heavens above
Where some say itâ€™s a glimpse of Godâ€™s great design
Some say itâ€™s the science of all things combined
May we look up and always feel wonder

Here is to us and all that we see
Hereâ€™s to our hearts and the air that we breathe
Hereâ€™s to a round in good company
Hereâ€™s to the drink that we share

Raise up your glasses!
Let us drink to the time that we have
For these moments pass lightly and wonâ€™t come again
May our lives all burn brightly right up to the end
May we live them with joyous abandon

Raise up your glasses!
Let us drink to the end of the day
Let us drink to the work when the workinâ€™ is through
Let us drink one â€˜o me let us drink one â€˜o you
Let us drink one to those who arenâ€™t with us

Here is to us and all that we see
Hereâ€™s to our hearts and the air that we breathe
Hereâ€™s to a round in good company

Hereâ€™s to the future and hereâ€™s to the past
Let us drink one down slow, let us drink one down fast
Let us drink one as if this night is our last
Hereâ€™s to the drink that we share
