Believe You

Justin Tyler

Cuz I don't believe you anymore
I don't believe all the things that you said me
I'll take you by the hand, love remains a diamond ring
Breaking down the walls along the wayCuz I wanna believe what you say
Cuz I wanna believe that way
Cuz I wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
And now there's no where to hideCuz there's nothing thats left inside
I just wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
But it's to lateCuz I don't see clearly anymore
I can't believe that I'm lost on an open road
And I don't know if the diamond ring reminds you what my heart can bring
But every day and night I'm on my ownCuz I wanna believe what you say
Cuz I wanna believe that way
Cuz I wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
I just wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
But it's to lateAnd I get down on my hands and knees
And I'm begging you please
Stop your lies
(Stop them, baby just stop them)Cuz I wanna believe what you say
Cuz I wanna believe that way
Cuz I wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
I just wanna believe you now
I just wanna believe somehow
But it's to late
