Cowards in a Brave New World

Kim Richey

Lets find some place and bide our time
Party even when the sun wont shine
You and I are two of a kind
Cowards in a brave new worldPut ourselves in the hands of fate
Close our eyes and fall from grace
Go up in smoke without a trace
Cowards in a brave new worldOh, cowards in a brave new world
Oh, cowards in a brave new worldWe aint looking for no Holy Grail
We get wine from a bottle and water from a well
We lived to tell the tale of
Cowards in a brave new worldOh, cowards in a brave new world
Oh, cowards in a brave new worldWell share the pillow
Well make our bed
Well share our dreams
Come and rest your head, uh, huhOh, cowards in a brave new world
Oh, cowards in a brave new world
Oh, cowards in a brave new world
Brave new world, brave new world, oh, ho
