Lucky For Me

Aaron Pritchett

my jaw hit the floor the day you walked in all eyes were pointed in your direction with nothing to lose i asked you to dance i didn't think that i'd stand a chance butchorus: lucky for me you proved me wrong (proved me wrong)
it was a roll of the dice it was a shot so long what started out as no hope in hell has turned out heavenly so lucky for mejust goes to show you cant judge a book by the cover if i had i'd still be searching for another i believed i was livin in a dream and at any moment someone would wake me up but, chorus 2x
yeah
lucky for me 5x
