Zealot

Gemini Syndrome

Not to concerned with deserting
All the differences everyone's observing.
Take me away from the burning.
All the simpletons, all the lines are blurring.
Ready the house for the haunting
All the imbeciles everyone is running.
Burn it all down 'til there's nothing.
Unrepentant, at least you know it's something.We will believe...whatever you think we need...Everybody's scratching just to get to the surface,
Find their purpose,
In this wasted life.
Everybody wants to know their ending is perfect,
That it's worth it.
It's not wasted time.
We don't believe in you (zealot!),
We don't believe in you!Taking a meal from the beggar,
It's already rotten and he doesn't even need it.
Who needs a sheep to be the shepherd?
Wool is a waste because nobody can eat it.
Who needs knowledge from a prophet?
Scribble the words down, but nobody will read it.
Sell the page to make a profit,
Speak the truth and yet nobody will heed it.We will believe...whatever you think we need...Everybody's scratching just to get to the surface,
Find their purpose,
In this wasted life.
Everybody wants to know their ending is perfect,
That it's worth it.
It's not wasted time.
We don't believe in you (zealot!),
We don't believe in you!We are a zealot, martyr, and a traitor,
Order hard-earned, and a beggar.
You are a false prophet and forsaker.
We don't believe in you!You have deceived...with every breath you breathe...Everybody's scratching just to get to the surface,
Find their purpose,
In this wasted life.
Everybody wants to know their ending is perfect,
That it's worth it.

It's not wasted time.
We don't believe in you (zealot!),
We don't believe in you!
We don't believe in you!
