All Wound Up

Quiet Riot

(She don't know)
I can't believe you're standing here
If he knew he would probably die
Even if you never told a soul
Girl, you know it doesn't make it right
But there's no time to think it through
Is that your tongue? Fuck it, never mind (oh, oh)
I told him "maybe you should leave" (maybe you should leave)
But she just laughed and said "enjoy the ride"
Then she said "Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm not concerned to be left behind
'Cause I'm all wound up
And short on time"
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm trying to find love
You don't have to call
'Cause I'm all wound up
And I like to fall
(And now)
My mind is blown, my back is shot
And I've got rug burns across my knees (oh)
My guilty conscious creeping in (Oh no, why did you let her in)
She just said, could she get some water please? (mmm)
I walked down the hall and had to smile
Being bad never felt so right
(Here)
And then I heard a key inside the door
I should have never let her spend the night
Then she said "Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm not concerned to be left behind
'Cause I'm all wound up
And short on time"
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm trying to find love

You don't have to call
'Cause I'm all wound-all wound-all wound up
Don't you check the work outside
I can make you feel all right
It's all right to come inside

It's all right to feel alive
Lick my lips and smack my ass
Slow it down, don't go too fast
It's all right to come inside
It's all right to feel alive
Lick my lips and smack my ass
Slow it down, don't go too fast
It's all right to come inside
It's all right to feel alive
Don't you check the work outside
I can make you feel all right
It's all right to come inside
It's all right to feel alive
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm not concerned to be left behind
'Cause I'm all wound up
And short on time
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm trying to find love
You don't have to call
'Cause I'm all wound up
And I like to fall
And she said "Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm not concerned to be left behind
'Cause I'm all wound up
And short on time"
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm trying to find love
You don't have to call
'Cause I'm all wound up
And I like to fall
And she said "Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm not concerned to be left behind
'Cause I'm all wound up

And short on time"
Oh, I wanna get down with you
And I don't care who came with who
I'm trying to find love
You don't have to call
'Cause I'm all wound up
And I like to fall
