

Sacred Fire

Grave Digger

My heart is pounding, full moon is rising

My brain is crying, my eyes are staring

 I know what will happen to my soul

 Insanity will taken control

Sacred fire

 Burning higher

 Sacred fire

 Is my desire

 I feel the hunger, I feel the pain

 I lick the blood that's running through your veins

 I bite your heart and lead you to death

 Only the sacred fire can save your breath

Sacred fire

 Burning higher

 Sacred fire

 Is my desire
