

Sooner or Later

Madonna

Sooner or later you're gonna be mine
Sooner or later you're gonna be fine
Baby it's time that you faced it
I always get my man Sooner or later you're gonna decide
Sooner or later there's nowhere to hide
Baby it's time so why waste it in chatter?
Let's settle the matter Baby you're mine on a platter
I always get my man But if you insist, babe the challenge delights me
The more you resist babe, the more it excites me
And no one I've kissed babe ever fights me again
If you're on my list, it's just a question of when When I get a yen, then baby amen
I'm counting to ten and then I'm gonna love you like nothing you've known
I'm gonna love you and you all alone
Sooner is better than later but lover
I'll hover, I'll plan This time I'm not only getting
I'm holding my man
