Bad Diary Days

Pedro the Lion

We barely ever fight she knows that I love her
At first we made it every night but I don't want to bug her about it
She just has a funny way of loving mePair of ticket stubs in the desk a movie I've never seen
I probably shouldn't ask it sounds so accusing
She must have forgot to mention girl's night outThe breakfast cereal talked more than we did all day long
I asked her for a walk but she had to be on her way
So I told her that I knew she'd been stepping outAn she swore that she could explain
She swore that it would not happen again
And she swore that she could explain
We both knew her words were in vain

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/