Let Go

Adema

I'm sitting on the edge of the water
Contemplating my strange life
The sun starts to fall into the ground
A breeze picks up off the waves
And everything is fineLet go of all of your painI know that I am not alone
Everyone makes mistakes
And starts to learn with time
I am content with who I am
There's nothing more I need to say
I'm happy with my lifeLet go of all of your pain
Let go of all of your pain
Let go and you'll escape
You'll be happy with yourself
Let go of all of your painLet go of the pain
Let go of all of your pain
Let go of all of your pain
Let go and you'll escape
You'll be happy with yourself
Let go of all of your painLet go, let go
And release all this pain
Let go, let go
And release all this pain
Let go, let go
And release all this pain
Let go, let go
Of all of the pain
