What Do You Want

Emily Vaughn

never asked any questions and now guess you got a few confessions but I won't hear it yeah I'm not gonna hear it and yes we all make some mistakes, but that doesn't make this all okay and I don't wanna hear it yeah I don't wanna hear it
what do you want from me
I gave everything
I think it's time you let this go
and if I gave you all I had
then what do you want from me
thirty calls in a week doesn't justify what you've done all this time so I don't wanna hear it
maybe you should let it go cause I've already let you go
