

Heroes

Edison Chen

Not gonna miss you when you're dead and gone
Not gonna talk about you over and over and over
    Not gonna file you under latest nostalgia
        Nor happily ever after
    Not gonna listen to your played out songs
        (Played out songs)
    Don't wanna think about you over and over and over
    Not gonna read about the latest fads on your trendy blog
        I want nothing to do with that
        'Cause you've made a mess of everything
            (And I'm not listening)
        You're not a hero, you're a liar
        You're not a savior, you're a vampire
    Sucking the life out of all the friends you've ever known
        You're just a train wreck, not a winner
    Up on your soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
        A saint without a cause
    We're not listening, we're not listening
        I'm gonna start a revolution
        Of convoluted disillusion
            (Start a revolution)
        I'll lead a war with no conclusion
    And in the final hour I'll be a confident coward
        'Cause if we stand for nothing
        We'll fall for anything
        You're not a hero, you're a liar
        You're not a savior, you're a vampire
    Sucking the life out of all the friends you've ever known
        You're just a train wreck, not a winner
    Up on your soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
        A saint without a cause
    We're not listening, we're not listening
        Yeah, this is moving in the same direction
            But I'm a little too spent to care
            'Cause it's a battlefield 'til it blows over
        Keep your friends close and your enemies closer
            We throw stuff but we live in glass houses
                We talk shit like it's a cross to bear
                You're only wrong until you get older

Keep your friends close and your enemies closer, enemies closer
They're gonna miss me when I'm dead and gone
They're gonna talk about me over and over and over
They're gonna file me under latest nostalgia
And happily ever after
I'm not a hero, I'm a liar
I'm not a savior, I'm a vampire
Sucking the life out of all the friends I've ever known
We're a train wreck, not winners
On a soapbox, preaching down to the sinners
Saints without a cause
We're not listening, we're not listening
We're not listening, we're not listening
