

Song For Me

Doro Pesch

I remember every place and everytime
That I have sung for family and friends
And the words have their reason and their rhyme
When all the voices there are joining in
And I stood there in the cold and in the rain
And thought of how the water turned to wine
And somehow it always seems to ease the pain
To sing a song for a soul who once touched mine
[Chorus]Who will sing a song for me
When I

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>