Sam Malone

City And Colour

And you can try to fight this all you want
But I won't be there, I won't be there when you're all alone
This new season that brings with it the signs of hope, oh
Now you can't leave me, you can't leave me waiting all alone, alone
And I know, there is some place I can go
Where no one knows my name
And I still remember, you know I can still hear your voice, your voice
Although your silence, your silence still rings so clear
And do you think and do you think I would call just to hear you breathe?
Breathe, breathe, breathe
You always knew, you always knew that just one word would dry up
All my tears
And I know there is someplace I can go
Where no one knows my name, my name
No one knows my name
Where no one knows my name
