Echo Orbiter

Electricity connect, and the weeping cigarette smoke
All loveless bleeding hearts groan and moan to death and decay
Rest in the arms that tremble in excess obsess
In my dreams you romance tears as a madman poet

So you must rest

Carry the weight the bomb in your brain
Weary bones on miles of pavement
Nudity shy, but itâ€™s so often
Cover up and spare certain regrets this time
