

Carry

Ryan Montbleau Band

Daylight window will not rise..Hold tight
Days arrived time hangs heavy on the vine
Lets make wine

You and i were born not a second too soon
Hangin on a vine in the vineyard moon
Oh how soon i turn and say
Your my everything and everything to me

And i will carry the weight
I will carry the weight
I will carry the weight
And i won't let you have to negate

Twilight jones voices fire..Hold tight
Delight simmering so slowly in the pan
So come on in and get it

There were all born not a second too late
Laughing up a storm by the silver lake
Oh what more could we create
Just know that when your arms begin to ache

I will carry the weight
I will carry the weight
I will carry the weight
And i won't let you have to negate

If you cannot be rock then be my water
If you cannot be savior just be my valentine
Take this heart shaped box
Fill it up
With your wants and all your worries
Your frights and all your fantasies
And you just take the ring
Hand me every other thing

And i will carry the weight
I will carry the weight
I will carry the weight

And i won't let you have to negate
