i know i said it, i don't regret it "i wish that you would give me some credit" i'd go again if i could, i said it's not original to be hard it's never easy to believe the things you tell me when you're so far away you're never wanting for confidence, i said"i reassert my innocence and question all you relevance and eloquence" it's not like you're moving elephants i'm bigger that you i see you buried under mountains and mountains of evidence i exist on a different plain i'm stronger than you i know you want to but you're never gonna get in my brainand after all it's not what you get but what you pay for deep thoughts emotions and a hopelessness you never could feel it's like i don't know anything anymore and we be all about keeping it real, we gotyou're never wanting for confidence, i said "i reassert my innocence and question all you relevance and eloquence" it's not like you're moving elephants i see you buried under mountains and mountains of evidencei'm bigger that you
i'm stronger than you
i know you want to but you're never gonna get in my brain i exist on a different plaini am the legion of indelibly pissed i am the anger that you feel against the snapping of your own broken wrist we'll feed the needy with bubble gum i got no cares about your likes and your dislikes and i can't wait until the president is a dyke i'll be your solace when nobody else believes you we'll give them records for their shelter when the trouble comes i am the truth, yet i stand and deceive you i'm coming all undid, i'm paranoid it's easy to see i may look bad, but i'll bet no one's weaker than me but in the end it is our struggle that defines us and we know all and it's a struggle to confine us i be the motherfucker mixing sprite and metaphors i wanted blood i got so much more 'cause i fuck like a rockstar and you will be praising god damn, oh fuck that's amazingi'm bigger that you

i'm stronger than you
i know you want to but you're never gonna get in my braini'm bigger that you i exist on a different plain
i know you want to but you're never gonna get in my braini'm stronger than you
