

Incantations Of The Apprentice

Symphony X

Through eerie reach of ancient woods
Where lumbering mists arise
I journey for nine moons of the year
To where a land of legend lies Deep within a stony lamp-lit hall
Under falling grains of sand
Magic eyes glance magic pages
Turned by magic hands And as he spoke I watched in awe
A God's aura in his eyes
Master of all Darkness fall spirits arise
Lord of Storms blacken the skies With heavy breath, I break the seal
Howls echo through the room
Blood lettings of a black Raven's heart
Conjure up the wraiths of doom I cannot heed my Master's call
Lakes of Fire writhe and swell
Foolish eyes while spying Prophet's pages
Unleash Barons of Hell And as they rose I watched in awe
A God's aura in my eyes
Master of all Darkness fall spirits arise
Lord of Storms blacken the skies
